

Bugged

Each statement by Security Guard #2 translates to a homophone for a number.

- * Emerged victorious -> won -> one
- * Also -> too -> two
- * I'm about to drive -> fore -> four

Each statement by Security Guard #2 translates to a rough soundalike for a team playing in No More Secrets. You can think about this somewhat like misheard lyrics.

* A group protesting the use of herons as telegraph operators -> No morse egrets -> No More Secrets

* The Icelandic singer -> The Bjork -> The B Ark

* The logs come halfway up my legs -> Timber knee-deep -> Team Briny Deep

* Two apartment unit vigorously searched by the FBI -> Duplex Raided -> XX-Rated (double ecks rated)

* Share one's secrets with a cold celebration of masonry -> Confide in chill brick-fest -> Confidential Breakfast

* Poorly encoded Shriner's hat -> Lossy fez -> Los Jefes

* Citrus fruits in the buff -> Oranges nude -> Orange Snood

* Noisy sleep's elixir--a chamomile or an earl gray -> Snore's cure--a tea -> Sonar Security

Use the numbers from guard #2 to index into the team names from guard #1. Note that you should start with "The B Ark". "No More Secrets" is only used to hint at the mechanism of the clue.
